

Equity, Diversity, Inclusion & Indigenous Health Equity Speaker Series

This activity is an Accredited Group Learning Activity (Section 1) as defined by the Maintenance of Certification Program of the RCPSC, and meets the certification criteria of the CFPC and has been approved by McMaster University Continuing Professional Development for up to 7 MOC Section 1 hours or 7 Mainpro+ credits.

Providing 2SLGBTQIA+ Health Care: A Panel Discussion

This panel style webinar will explore the topic of providing safe and equitable health care for transgender and gender diverse people. Expert panelists will provide insight on how to promote safety and wellness in health care and examine the role of health professionals in providing safe care. Participants will learn strategies to bring quality care to 2SLGBTQIA+ individuals, and how to create inclusive environments within their clinical practice.

Dr. Natasha Johnson, Associate Professor, Pediatrics

Dr. Albina Veltman, Associate Professor, Psychiatry & Behavioural Neurosciences

Dr. Carys Massarella, Assistant Clinical Professor, Medicine

Dr. Robert Kerr*
Assistant Clinical Professor,
Family Medicine

*Pending Acceptance

November, 2021*

*Date TBD

REGISTRATION REQUIRED

For more information:
facultyaffairs@mcmaster.ca

Building 2SLGBTQIA+ Positive Spaces

Will Prakash Fujarczuk,
Coordinator, Sexual Violence
Prevention Education

Creating inclusive, support, positive spaces for 2SLGBTQIA staff, faculty and students on campus requires intentional work. In this session, participants will increase their awareness about the lives and experiences of 2SLGBTQ+ persons.

101 Session - October 7, 2021 at 8:00 a.m.

201 Session - October 19, 2021 at 5:00 p.m.

Space is Limited

Understanding Health Issues for Two-Spirit and Indigenous LGBTQIA+

Drawing on examples from research, community organizing and frontline practice, this session will share knowledge aimed at informing individual and collective efforts to ensure culturally safe access to healthcare and provide a better understanding of health issues for Two-Spirit and Indigenous LGBTQIA+.

Dr. Randy Jackson, Assistant Professor, School of Social Work, McMaster University, Anishinaabe from Kettle & Stony Point First Nation

December 9, 2021 at 5:00 p.m.